DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 09/13/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 39-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wensel et al. (U.S. 5,895,398) in view of Chee et al (U.S. 5,304,194).

Wensel et al discloses the claimed invention except for at least one strand extends along the coil elongate obstruction removing element (18,30). However, Chee et al teaches in figures 1 and 2, that it is known in the surgical art to have coil configuration having at least one strand. For this reason, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the at least one strand extends along the coil elongate obstruction removing element as taught by Chee et al to enhances the ability of the coil to facilitate embolization.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 09/13/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 39-44 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
